Episcopal Church Women's Groups Hold Breakfast

Lovely decorations carrying out the international theme were the motif for a kidnap breakfast held in the parish hall of St. Andrews Episcopal church recently. Mrs. Frank Church, president of St. Elizabeth Guild, and Mrs. Bea Moore, president of the Women's Auxiliary, ably assisted by several others, helped prepare the delicious breakfast of rolls and coffee. Each of the ladies brought something to work on for the bazaar to be held in October, and those who stayed past noon enjoyed a "no-bad" lunch.

First Afternoon Mass Celebrated

The first afternoon mass in Torrance was celebrated last Saturday at the Catholic Nativity Church, it was revealed by Father Robert Gara. Father Gara stated that it has been only since the beginning of the year that the Pope sanctioned afternoon masses. The change of policy was instituted in order to permit those to attend who would normally be unable to do so because of work. Father Patrick McGuinness officiated at the Saturday afternoon wedding mass. Miss Theresa McIntyre of 1735 Gramercy was married to Norman Baker, 1518 Anapola at last week's wedding.

How to reach the phone before it stops ringing

Rrrringg—there goes the phone. And before you can get to it from another part of the house, it stops ringing. But—with a handy extension telephone, you can take calls anywhere in the house! This convenience costs just a few pennies a day. And extensions are now available everywhere because they require no outside cables, wires, or central office facilities. For complete details about a new extension telephone in your home... call your Pacific Telephone business office.

your party-line neighbor may cut in on your telephone conversation and ask you to release the line. He'll surely appreciate it if you allow him to use the phone. And you may need the same courtesy in an emergency of your own.
